ORDER:

In the G.O. first read above, orders have been issued sanctioning (35) Head Warders (Male) to the Central Prison, Y.S.R.district. In the G.O. second read above, orders have been issued making the above said posts permanent.

2. In the letter third read above, the Director General & Inspector General of Prison & Correctional Administration, A.P., Hyderabad, has stated that at present all Female Prisoners sentenced to imprisonment exceeding one month and those sentenced to life belonging to the districts of Y.S.R.district, Kurnool, Anantapur, Chittoor, Nellore and Prakasam of Rayalaseema Region are being confined in State Jail for Women, Rajahmundry. Due to this, the relatives of Female Prisoners are experiencing much difficulty to have interviews at Rajahmundry which is far distant from the above districts. Therefore, a female block for (50) prisoners in Central Prison, Y.S.R.District was opened on 17-06-2007 in order to arrange interviews to the female prisoners belonging to the above districts of Rayalaseema Region with their relatives and the said prisoners were transferred to Central Prison, Y.S.R.district from State Jail for Women, Rajahmundry. The Judicial Officers concerned have also been requested to commit all female prisoners of the above districts sentenced for imprisonment for life to Central Prison, Y.S.R.district.

3. The Director General & Inspector General of Prison & Correctional Administration, A.P., Hyderabad, has also stated that at present (5) Female Warder posts are available at Central Prison, Y.S.R.district to guard the Female Prisoners, but no Female Head Warder posts are existing. Therefore, at least two Female Head Warders are highly essential at Central Prison, Y.S.R.district, on par with the Female Jail at Hyderabad and Rajahmundry for the purpose of supervising the Female Warders, supervising the night guarding, monitoring the movements of Female Prisoners and to strengthen the security of Female block.
